Dear Mr. Tripathi,

Thank you for your invitation to the 'Indo-Bhutan Friendship Summit' to be held in Thimphu on 20 June 2018. Due to my commitments as Ambassador of Bhutan to India, I deeply regret that I will not be able to attend the event in Bhutan which your organization is organizing.

I wish the event a great success.

With best wishes,

(V. Namgyel)

Letter of Appreciation

Dear Mr. Ramesh Chandra Tripathi,

I am delighted to acknowledge your remarkable contributions to sustainable tourism and development in Bhutan.

Your leadership at the 5th Bhutan-Bhutan Friendship Summit on 22nd June 2024 was transformative. Your visionary insights have made Bhutan a leading eco-friendly destination, driving innovation and sustainability.

As Chairman of the Global Leaders Foundation, your dedication to excellence and sustainable development aligns perfectly with Bhutan's environmental and cultural goals. Your support has greatly advanced Bhutan Tara Excursion's initiatives, inspiring Bhutanese awardees to achieve new heights.

I extend my felicitations to the Global Leaders Foundation in Bhutan and worldwide for fostering mutual trust, global brotherhood, and regional peace. Your dynamic leadership programs have significantly contributed to the development of both nations.

As Bhutan enters a new phase of growth and economic empowerment, I am confident that the Global Leaders Foundation will play an even greater role in achieving outstanding results. These initiatives are vital to the socio-economic growth of both Bhutan and India. Together, we aim to drive global progress, serving as a growth engine for the world.

This letter serves to acknowledge your invaluable contributions and to encourage continued engagement with Indian institutions. Your efforts are key in forging lasting partnerships that benefit both nations.

We deeply value the strong bonds between our countries. Your visionary leadership is essential to our shared goals of sustainable development and innovation. I am sure our nations will continue to benefit from our close cooperation.

Thank you for your extraordinary contributions. We look forward to continuing our fruitful collaboration and witnessing the enduring impact of your legacy.

Kind Regards,

Pungay Khando
